“ I remember when Deanna's grandmother, (my mother) Louise Chitwood and Deanna came to Florida and stayed at my home to go to Disney. We had a wonderful day at the park and she was so full of energy. Another time when she was working at Sam's in Louisville when I lived there, I stopped by the store and Deanna had a job that day of stocking the freezer, she somehow did not have any gloves and her hands were so cold. So, I got her some gloves to keep her warm. There are a lot of memories and I have been reflecting on them since I learned of Deanna's passing. She is now with her grandmother - and they are not alone. You will be missed, Deanna, but not forgotten.
