“ Daddy I miss you so much,time has went by but the pain has not gone away,when I lost you I lost a part of me too,I was daddys little girl and always will be just cuz your not here with me no more I can still feel your presence. I wanna talk to you so bad, you were always my go to person when something was wrong and you saved me from alot of bad decisions I made,Im thankful for the time we had together just wish it hadnt ended like it did. Me,Kenny and all your grandbabies miss you dearly,we all still think about you especially when were doing something you like or eating spaghetti lol that was your favorite. I love you daddy and wish that right now you could come wrap your arms around me and tell me "Kiddo everything is gonna be ok" I could hear your voice,and be in your arms one more time. Rest easy daddy I love you and miss you...Your babygirl Jessica

“ Wayne you were a very dear friend for over 2 decades. You were the kindest, most sentimental person I have ever met. Your love and kindness for people and animals was admirable. No matter what was going on in your life, you always had a silly joke to tell, and a warm smile to share. Your absence in my life will certainly be felt... RIP my dear friend, I'll see you on the flip side....
