“ My dear Mother in law, you have been in my life for 34 years. It's hard to think you're not going to be here anymore. I have so many memories with you.. I know you are having a big family reunion now. You get to meet my daddy in person now, I'm sure he's thanking you for those bowls of butter beans you sent over to him when he was sick. Love you always! Tammy

“ Her smile always lit up a room. I have never been blood family, but she accepted me as her own. She always had a way with words, and always knew what to say. Thank you for all the sweet hugs and warm welcomes Granny. You will forever be missed.

“ My heart is broken over the loss of Susan Mary. I have way to many memories to list. As far back as I can remember, she's been there. Always more good times than bad. Sis, Tony, Paul, Jamie and Carrie, she loved you more than anything in the world. Hold on to all those wonderful memories! I love you all and if I can do anything for you, I'm just a call away! Patricia “ Sue was by far one of the strongest women I've known. She has always been revered by my family as a wonderful and loving wife to my Uncle and loving and best mother to her children.

I can only imagine the family reunion going on right now in heaven as we mourn her here on this earth. Hugs, love and prayers go out to the whole family, I am so sorry for your loss Carrie, Jamie and Melinda.

“ Sue you was always one of my favorite “Aunt”. Always called you Aunt Sue though we were cousins. You was always there for those that needed you. You were a great mother, sister, daughter, cousin, aunt and friend. I know you had plenty waiting on you with open arms. Love you! Rest easy

“ My mom was the most loving, trusting, honest, kind hearted unselfish person i have ever known. She always put her kids first, what can I say there was only one of her, and there will never be another one like her. She was different in so many ways, some people could see her as ruff. I just always saw her as Stern figure in my life, when you have a parent who have kids as she did the parents grow up as the kids grow up and everyone learns together mom taught us this. Her morals where strong, her kindness, strength and sheer will to fight is something ill always love about her. She was a hard worker my mom went out of this world with hardly any material things. They say it's not what you take with you it's what you leave behind she left all those things and more in all of her children and grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Saying she'll be missed is hardly the word that I would use to describe how i feel. Our world was turned upside down you know it's going to happen you just hope it never does. I love you Mom. I know you will rest in peace. I just hope that the ones that's left behind can also be at peace. These words are not enough to even describe what you are to me.
